 I feel calm, climbing the mountains, seeing the sky, fraps sky, colorful, it was slow breath, face, betraying eyes. not connect long conversation, but

I am you

I was trying inside when I saw your betraying eyes saying I am you, but chasing is hard - so I'd rather buy clothes. Omg!

pick up - I was having the time of my life in late of 2019 or early 2020. I have plan my vacation important events, special classes throughout the year. Waking up every morning and be inspired of the date that we have marked in our calendar.

academic makes a exciting and expecting happy days along. I even planned to finish my swimming class together w/ that year and be proud that at early forties, still learned how to swim. But the most prostrating event is that my note to happen is my vacation during that spring. I was so happy for me! cuz I made my promise that I will be home

Reflection

I am grateful for this workshop because of many things that I learned from it. It really brings out sensitivity, every topic that has been discussed. Deep learning of writing, <sup>and</sup> arts that I never encounter and teaches me to learn and discover more. I am thankful for the 3 young students, they are so inspired in teaching us and so sweet in class.

It was fun learning with them !!
